Visiting Speaker Requirements

Visiting Speaker Requirements

In order to maintain our commitment to provide safe environments for the people we serve and to ensure that authentic Catholic teachings and tradition are respected, all pastors and leaders of organizations must adhere to the Diocesan policy on guest presenters.

All lay presenters (individuals, musicians, groups, etc.) that come from outside the Diocese of Dallas and are invited to speak on issues of Catholic doctrine, tradition, ritual, etc., must present a current letter of suitability from their pastor or Bishop. That document should be sent to the Safe Environment Office, along with the topic they will address, and date of event, prior to the event. If they are conducting a retreat or similar event for children or youth, they must also provide proof that they have a cleared criminal background check.

All clergy or religious that come from outside the Diocese of Dallas to speak must present an affidavit of suitability from their Bishop or religious superior. That document should be sent to the Safe Environment Office, along with the topic and date of the event, prior to coming. If they are conducting a mission, retreat or similar event for children or youth, they must also provide proof that they have a cleared criminal background check.

These documents will be maintained on file and in the speakers' database at the Diocesan Pastoral Center.
