

Diocese of Dallas, Office of Catholic Social Ministry

Homebound Ministry

Parish Coordinator of Homebound Ministry Training

Tuesday, October 25 6 p.m. –9 p.m.
Online via Zoom

Parish Coordinator of Homebound Ministry training is 3 hours and includes:

- Understanding your role as servant leader to people in need of healing
- Planning a parish homebound ministry
- How to nurture and care for parish pastoral visitors
- How to connect with hospitals and long-term care homes in your parish
- Networking with other parish coordinators of homebound ministry (we encourage coordinators to attend the Pastoral Visitor training as well)

Who should attend: Parish leaders that coordinate visitation to persons who are sick or homebound, in a hospital, nursing care home, or in their home.

How to register: Click here to register.

Registration deadline: October 22nd

Contact Kevin Prevou, Associate Director of Human Dignity and Respect for Life, for more information: kprevou@cathdal.org or 214.379.2848. There is no cost from the Diocese for the training, though it is recommended that the parish purchase the following book for pastoral visitors and coordinators of homebound ministry: Handbook for Ministers of Care 3rd Edition, LTP, 2021.