

UNIVERSITY OF DALLAS

Ann & Joe O. Neuhoff School of Ministry

— SERVICE ISN'T JUST — ABOUT GIVING BACK

Find your purpose through the

CERTIFICATE OF PASTORAL MINISTRY PROGRAM

“The world tells us to seek success, power and money; God tells us to seek humility, service and love.”

- Pope Francis

Gain knowledge and skills for transformative ministry through dynamic classes for volunteer ministers.

- Participate at four convenient locations: University of Dallas, St. John Paul II High School, The Catholic Conference & Formation Center and All Saints Catholic Community.
- Learn from experienced and engaging University of Dallas professors as you grow in community with others.
- Focus your service by earning an endorsement in catechesis, liturgical ministry, marriage and family life, pastoral care or youth and young adult ministry.

Discover more and register at udallas.edu/ministry/cpm

UNIVERSITY OF DALLAS

Ann & Joe O. Neuhoff School of Ministry

The Certificate in Pastoral Ministry Program is a collaborative venture of the University of Dallas and the Diocese of Dallas. The program is designed to meet the educational and formational needs of adults who serve their parishes, schools or other Catholic organizations on a volunteer basis.

✦

FIND YOUR PURPOSE

✦

Classes are offered in five-week sessions and are designed to develop your understanding of the faith and how to share it with others.

LEARN YOUR FAITH

Some of the courses offered in the Certificate in Pastoral Ministry Program include:

- Christian Anthropology
- Ministry in a Multicultural Church
- Morality and Social Justice
- New Testament
- Prayer and Spirituality

Discover more and register at udallas.edu/ministry/cpm