Outside the Diocese of Dallas

Saint Paul University, Ottawa, Canada, offers Licentiate in Canon Law (JCL) over six semesters. It is an ecclesiastical program governed by Sapientia Christiana apostolic constitution and subsequent legislation and norms of the Holy See. Students will also receive the civil diploma of Master of Canon Law (MCL), granted jointly by Saint Paul University and the University of Ottawa. For more information and registration contact Faculty of Canon Law at 613-236-1393 ext. 2247, email canonlaw@ustpaul.org, or visit the website www.ustpaul.ca.

International Institute of Theological and Tribunal Studies (IITTS) offers Licentiate Degree in Canon Law. This is a collaborative Ministry of Universidad Pontificia de México, the Archdiocese of San Antonio, the International Institute of Theological and Tribunal Studies, and the Mexican American Catholic College. This is a 2-year/Six Semester Plan. Program provides in-depth study of entire Code, including its sources: magisterial and disciplinary, and the study of other disciplines having a connection to canon law. For further information, contact Monsignor Charles J. Chaffman, STL, JCD, at canonlawiitsts@yahoo.com or phone 213-300-7356.

September 2017-May 2018, St. Paul University, Ottawa, Ontario, announces a Graduate Diploma in Ecclesiastical Administration (GDEA) with a specialization in canon law concerning the establishment and maintenance of a safe Church environment for minors and vulnerable adults. This Graduate Diploma is intended for those who serve in leadership service roles in dioceses, parishes, institutes of consecrated life and societies of apostolic life. It will prove especially helpful for diocesan bishops, vicars general, vicars of clergy and religious, victim assistance coordinators, civil attorneys, advisors to bishops discerning allegations of sexual abuse of minors and vulnerable adults, church media personnel, etc. For more information and registration contact Faculty of Canon Law at 613-236-1393 ext. 2247 or email canonlaw@ustpaul.org.
